

Alvechurch Community Choir
Newsletter 27 March 2018

For anyone who didn't get there, we had a lovely session in the Crown yesterday. Everyone sang lustily and Liz, the landlady, joined in at least one song so it must have been OK! Thank you everyone who came, and Mike for a great selection of old favourites and "new" songs.

Don't forget we have a week off next week for Easter, and then we're back on 9 April. This is at the Social Club. We are moving rooms there and have been asked to use the upstairs room – those of you who come to Acoustic Roots will know it. Drinks will still have to come from the downstairs bar. The next week, 16 April, is the AGM – look out for the agenda and other documents which will come out beforehand.

It's not long now to our May performances:

6 May 4.00 at Droitwich (St Richards Festival)
19 May 2.30 at St Laurence's Church (Sue and Roger's wedding)
27 May 1.30 in Alvechurch Meadows (Picnic in the Park)

Remember to sign up for those you can do.

The workshop in June will be with Themba Mvula. The committee have decided to change the format slightly because of difficulties with venues. It will now be on the afternoon and evening of 23 June with a follow up session on 25 June at our normal Monday session. The venue is being confirmed. Themba is a great singing coach so it should be very enjoyable and useful. Thanks for Lesley for organising this. There will be a short meeting before choir starts on 9 April to get together a group of volunteers to help organise and run the workshop.

If you haven't done so, please get the latest versions of the songs – Alison has sent them out. Quite a few people are getting a bit lost because they come with old versions!
Have a good Easter break

Mary Green mail@marygreen.plus.com