

Alvechurch Community Choir
Newsletter 12 June 2018

We had a good work-out last night, working in detail on three songs and ending up with some lovely harmonies. Thank you, Laurence and Dave, and everyone else, including the blackbird which sang along with us again.

Next week we are back in the Village Hall. Then on Saturday it is the much looked-forward-to workshop with Themba. It starts at 2.30, and would any helpers please arrive at 2. Someone else is using the Hall before that. Remember there are refreshments provided, and that in the evening session at 6 you can invite friends and family to listen to our mini-performance. We do have some previous members and some non-members coming, so please welcome them. Everything is paid for, including for non-members. If there are any late sign-ups, please contact Terry or Lesley, or email me on mail@marygreen.plus.com

Please remember Laurence wants you to sign up if you are doing a "turn" at the barbecue on 16 July. He also wants to know what songs you would like to sing at the Crown on 23rd so he is sure he knows them. If you aren't able to get to rehearsals to sign up you can let me know.

I have been talking to a man called Sam from an arts charity who wants to create an arts trail in Alvechurch to promote all the creative activity in the area. He wants to start with ACC. I am hoping to get him to speak to the committee on 9 July and then we might have more details for you. It sounds good!

Mary Green